 - e. Kelley Marchbanks made a motion to accept the Treasurer’s report and Chad Rolfs seconded. Motion passed.
4. Old business – President Cobbs reported on the association accomplishments over the year.
 - a. Accomplishments
 - i. Since last August, AVAP welcomed 32 new members bringing the listserv membership to 218
 - ii. We have completely consolidated finances into one location
 - iii. We have collaborated with and made recommendations to AAVMC for a new excellence in fundraising award that will focus on raising DVM scholarship funds that will be awarded the first time next year.
 - iv. This month we will submit IRS form 1023 for our non-profit status
 - b. Chris Gruber Memorial Scholarship Pledge - President Cobbs reported that the 4th installment to the Chris Gruber pledge was due. Danielle Johnson made the motion to pay the 4th installment and Chastity Carrington seconded. Motion passed.
 - c. Recognition
 - i. President Cobbs recognized Kevin and Mari Doerr for all their work to file the non-profit status applications.

- ii. Cobbs recognized Chad Rolfs and the Purdue team for coordinating such a fabulous conference.
- iii. Cobbs recognized the executive board for their work on the conference plans and throughout the year – Gretchen Morgan, Lynne Haley, Jo Ann Winn, Joe Montgomery, Danielle Johnson, and Karen Johnson.

5. New Business

- a. Conference survey results – President Cobbs reported 55 responses from the recent future AVAP conference survey to keep AVAP with AVMA or to split away. Results were positive to decouple from AVMA; 38 respondents would attend; summer is preferred time; and 28 veterinary institutions offered to host. The executive board and conference planning chair will review the options for 2019.
- b. Election 2017 – President Cobbs presented the slate of officers and added Pam Jones, CSU, as conference planner chair for 2017. Melissa Headrick made a motion to accept the slate of officers and Patricia Wlasuk seconded. Motion passed.
 - i. Presentation of slate of Officers for 2017-2018
